WINESKINS

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus!

Just a brief letter to make sure your plans are including the next Wineskins fellowship, April 30-May 2, 2010. Samuel "Kip" Elogia of Kenya and Professor of Christian Doctrine and World Christianity at Emmanuel School of Religion, will be sharing with us. He will also be bringing with him, Rev. Samuel Chepkonga, a pastor from the Kerio Valley in Kenya.

The conference will begin on Friday, April 30th, at 6:00PM, and we will say farewell at 2:00PM, on Sunday, May 2nd. Details as far as where it will be held will be forthcoming. Those of you who are flying in will want to fly into the Los Angeles Int'l Airport or the Long Beach Airport.

Again, we want to reiterate one of our basic requests at Wineskins. To achieve the objectives of koinonia and dialogue, we ask that all participants agree to be present for the entire conference. If, for whatever reason, you are unable to commit to the entire conference, please let us know immediately, so that someone else may be contacted to take your place. Thank you.

Our cost is $165.00 per person (a $100.00 deposit will hold you a place, first-come, first-served). The cost for full-time college/university students is $115.00. Space is limited to 44 participants and many of the past Wineskins have been very full.

Items to bring: Bible, notebook, toiletries, money for lunch on Saturday, & swimsuit (optional)

NOTE: Couples should pack separately because they will probably not be staying together.

If you need a place to stay before or after the Conference, please call Regan Read at (310) 516-7550 or e-mail Barb Kjos at barb@servant-king.org.

Please feel free to give us a call if there are any questions (Scott at 310/678-7831 or Rich at 310/350-9906) or e-mail us at rich@servant-king.org.
